IMMEDIATE EFFECT OF PROHIBITION AND RIGHT OF REVIEW
You are immediately prohibited from driving for the period set out in this Notice of Driving Prohibition. You have the right to have this driving prohibition reviewed by the Superintendent of Motor Vehicles (the "Superintendent") under section 215.48 of the Motor Vehicle Act. An oral hearing is available only if the prohibition specified above is for 30 days or longer, and only if you specifically request one at the time you apply for a review. Filing an application for review does not stay the driving prohibition.

REVIEW INSTRUCTIONS
Within 7 days of the date of service of this Notice of Driving Prohibition you may apply to the Superintendent to review the prohibition. If you apply for a review you must: (1) file an application with the Superintendent at any Driver Licensing Centre, in the required form and manner, and containing all the required information; (2) pay all required fees; and (3) if the peace officer did not take your driver's licence or permit to operate a motor vehicle, surrender it to the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (ICBC), or if applicable, file the required statutory declaration stating that the licence has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

When you apply for a review, the date and time for the review will be scheduled. If you intend to have a lawyer represent you, it is your responsibility to ensure the lawyer is available for the scheduled review. The scheduled review date will not be changed except in extraordinary circumstances.

When you apply for a review, copies of all available evidence concerning this prohibition will be disclosed to you unless you refuse the disclosure. If all relevant information is not available at the time of application, you must provide a fax number to which the documents can be sent, or make arrangement to collect the information or have it collected on your behalf from a Driver Licensing Centre.

You may attach to your review application any statements or other evidence that you wish the Superintendent to consider. You may also provide it separately to the Superintendent. In order to ensure that all of your written evidence is considered, you must provide the information to the Superintendent in advance of the scheduled review.

If you request an oral hearing and, without prior notice to the Superintendent, fail to appear on the date and at the time and place arranged for the hearing, your right to an oral hearing is deemed to have been waived.

*NOTICE OF MONETARY PENALTY
Under section 215.44 of the Motor Vehicle Act the monetary penalty as indicated above must be paid no later than 30 days from the date this Notice is served. Under section 26 of the Motor Vehicle Act, ICBC may, without a hearing, refuse to issue you a driver's licence if the penalty is not paid, and any licence in your possession may be cancelled under section 26.1 of the Motor Vehicle Act.
