SPEAKER:

CAST VOTE: 141, 144, 225, 236.

Chouhan, Raj, elected, 1.

DECISIONS:

Bill (No. 8) permitted to advance through all stages of consideration in one day, pursuant to Standing Order 81, 46.

Bill (No. M 209) ruled out of order; provisions of the bill amend Standing Order 76 and touch upon the prerogatives of the Crown, 65.

Bill (No. M 219) does not prescribe or impose required spending that would clearly constitute a new and distinct charge; therefore, it does not offend Standing Order 67 and will be permitted to proceed, 243.

Chair did not hear unparliamentary language, nor was it recorded in the debates and therefore, cannot make a ruling; Chair cautions all Members that they bear responsibility for their remarks and overall civility and decorum of proceedings, 59.

Chair has observed that use of time for questions and answers during Oral Question Period often varies in length and detail; Ministers should take note of the length of a question they are responding to and strive to provide a proportional answer whenever possible, 250.

Content of statements made upon introduction of a bill with respect to Practice Recommendation 5 should briefly outline the purpose of the bill without offering arguments or opinions, 238.

Matter raised ought to have been a Point of Order; however, not the role of the Chair to intervene on matters that amount to disagreements on the interpretation of information or of words spoken, 19.

Members invited to rise on Points of Order regarding unparliamentary language at the appropriate time to bring the infraction to the attention of the Chair or consideration within the context of debate; it is inappropriate for the Chair to intervene in disputes between Members, 240.

Members participating remotely in the division on third reading of Bill (No. 14) did not contravene guidance issued under Standing Order 8 (3) (b), 142, 144.

Rule of anticipation applies to questions in Oral Question Period pertaining to bills if they deal with the details of a bill which stands on the Order Paper, or if they address proposed amendments; however, a question may be canvassed if it is of a general or high-level nature. Rule of anticipation is not relevant to a bill defeated at first reading, 204.

PRIVILEGE:

The criterion of whether the question of privilege was raised at the earliest opportunity was not met regarding the ability of the Official Opposition to scrutinize the budget and main estimates given the introduction of Bill (No. 8) intituled Carbon Tax Amendment Act, 2025; therefore, it is the ruling of the Chair that a prima facie breach of privilege has not occurred, 62.

Not the role of the Chair to determine whether the use of certain procedural tools constitute a good use of the House's time, and if the rules of procedure no longer serve the needs of Members, that is a determination for the House itself to make by way of a substantive motion; therefore, it is the ruling of the Chair that a prima facie breach of privilege has not occurred, 258.

Questions of privilege arising in committee must be raised in committee and accordingly, there is no role for the Chair to play in adjudicating whether a prima facie breach of privilege occurred; Members cannot take the shield of free speech to insult or impugn the character of someone outside of the House, 124.

STANDING ORDER 35 (URGENT PUBLIC IMPORTANCE)

Re B.C. Supreme Court ruling declaring Aboriginal title by Cowichan Tribes on land in Richmond also owned as fee-simple properties, 206.

STATEMENTS:

Allegations of racism clearly impute offensive personal characterizations, and as such, are out of order; Members asked to focus their comments on the policies and issues that are the subjects before the House, 201.

Bills that impose a new and distinct charge on public money or affect the constitution are out of order in the hands of a Private Member. The Chair urges Private Members to undertake due diligence and seek procedural advice prior to the introduction of a bill or amendment, 214.

Congratulating Seunghee Suzie Seo and Artour Sogomonian on their status as permanent officers of the Legislative Assembly, 87.

Death of Elder Elmer Seniemten George of the Songhees Nation, 184.

Guidance regarding decorum and rules of debate, including: the sub judice convention; the rule of anticipation during Oral Question Period; presenting a petition; clothing and badges with brand names, slogans, advertising or messages of a political nature; and respectful debate, 93.

Honouring the victims of the tragedy at the Lapu Lapu Day festival in Vancouver, 80.

Member for Columbia River-Revelstoke has withdrawn the point of order regarding comments by the Member for Burnaby East and the matter is considered resolved, 146.

Member must withdraw from the Chamber until his comments are withdrawn, 144.

Parliamentary language in Oral Question Period, 189.

Points of Order regarding the application of Standing Order 8 (2) with respect to a Member participating remotely in a division are a difference of interpretation of what the use of virtual backgrounds entails; the Chair will engage with House Leaders and issue updated guidance, 145.

Practice Recommendation 5 with respect to limitations on statements made upon introduction of a bill, 228.

Relevance in debate with respect to Bill (No. 5), 74, 77.

Responsibilities of Members with respect to timelines for second reading debate of Private Members' bills during Private Members' Time, 57.
